

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND AN EVENT

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 5, 2021—VIRTUAL PLATFORM
POST-CONFERENCE SYMPOSIUM

1:30 PM—2:30 PM

URGENCY TO MANAGE OSTEOPOROSIS IN THE ELDERLY IN 2021?

Presenter

Allya Khan, MD, FRCPC, FACP, FACE

Professor of Clinical Medicine; Divisions Endocrinology and Metabolism and Geriatrics; Director, Fellowship in Metabolic Bone Disease; Director, Calcium Disorders Clinic, McMaster University

Allya Khan is a Professor of Clinical Medicine at McMaster University, Director of the Calcium Disorders Clinic and the Fellowship in Metabolic Bone Disease at McMaster University. She graduated from the University of Ottawa Medical School with honors and completed postgraduate training at the University of Toronto. She has published over 200 scientific papers and numerous chapters and books on osteoporosis and parathyroid disease. She has received numerous national and international awards including the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Medal for excellence, International Hypoparathyroidism Award, International Osteoporosis Foundation award for publishing excellence and recognized by Osteoporosis Canada for outstanding contributions to research and education. She was recognized as being in the top 0.1% of the world experts in hyperparathyroidism by Expertscape.

Symposium Objectives:

1. Improve recognition of High Risk individuals without the need for BMD's.
2. Non-pharmacological strategies to decrease fracture risk.
3. Pharmacological treatments appropriate for the frail population with multiple comorbidities and polypharmacy.
4. How to apply the Fracture Risk Scale or FRAX in the frail elderly.
5. Urgency to treat high risk Osteoporotic elderly residents.

This program was supported in part by an educational program from Amgen, in accordance with Innovative Medicines of Canada Guidelines. Under the guidance of the Innovative Medicines Code of Conduct this event is for healthcare professionals only.

All conference attendees registered for the conference and all OLTC members are welcome.

Registration is required for OLTC members not registered for the Conference. (Details soon)

All Conference attendees will automatically be sent the login information.